On 07-01-2018 I was working uniformed patrol in the city of Seattle as 3R1. While on patrol, I responded to a call to investigate the report of a rape at 1(d) 12 Av S with the given information from dispatch: REF EVENT 239719/ COMPL CALLING BACK STILL WAITING FOR OFFICERS TO REPORT RAPE. HAVE TO BUZZ HER CALL BOX FOR ENTRY. ADVISED DELAY

Upon arrival to the location, I made contact with the complainant who was identified as 1(d) (DOB 1(d)-1990). 1(d) provided me with the following information: On 02-02-2018, 1(d) went on a first date with a guy that she had met on a dating app. Suspects information was provided to me as KRISHNA MANI, SENTHIL (DOB 04-1989). 1(d) said that they had made plans to meet at a café at approximately 1800hrs. She was advised by KRISHNA that he could not make it to the café as he was waiting for a package to be picked up from his residence. 1(d) then agreed to go to his apartment, as he lived nearby the café to wait for UPS before going out to eat.

1(d) arrived at KRISHNA's apartment and they were hanging out while waiting for UPS. After a couple hours, it was approximately 2000hrs, they both had decided to not go out to dinner and that they would stay in the apartment. KRISHNA mixed rum and coca cola drinks for the tow of them, and they began to drink at this time. 1(d) stated that they had also partook in smoking a vape pen possibly containing cannabis oil. 1(d) said that she had started feeling tired and fuzyz at this time.

1(d) stated that she remembered the time being 2140hrs, as KRISHNA pointed out that the ferry was passing at that time. 1(d) and KRISHNA were in the Livingroom on the couch and began to kiss at this time. While kissing, KRISHNA unhooked 1(d) bra and removed her shirt without asking her. 1(d) said that she felt as if she was losing track of time, and going in and out of consciousness. 1(d) stated that KRISHNA attempted to put his hand down her pants several times, and she recalls verballing telling him that it was not a good idea, and pushed his hand away.

After being on the couch for some time, 1(d) stated that she recalls KRISHNA telling her that they should move to the bedroom to have more room. 1(d) does not recall actually going to the bedroom or acknowledging the statement. She believes that at this time, she was led to the bedroom, where intercourse took place. 1(d) stated that KRISHNA's penis did penetrate her vagina. 1(d) stated that she only recalls hearing KRISHNA

On 7-3-2018 I was assigned this case for review. Upon reading the initial police report, I learned that V/ 1(d) met a man that she identified as Senthil Mani, Senthil 4-24-1989 on a dating application. 1(d) and Senthil decided to meet each other in person at a local café at approximately 1800 hours.

Upon 1(d) arrival, Senthil requested that 1(d) come to his apartment. Senthil stated that he was waiting for UPS and believed they would have been to his residence before the arranged time to meet. 1(d) agreed and went to Senthil's apartment. 1(d) and Senthil began to drink and smoke a vape cigarette. 1(d) started to feel drowsy and believes that she may have been drugged. 1(d) felt as though she did not have control of her body as she lost track of time and seemed to slip in and out of consciousness.

1(d) and Senthil were on the couch kissing as Senthil continued to try and put his hands down 1(d) pants. 1(d) could only tell Senthil no and attempt to move his hand, however, was very weak in doing so. Senthil removed 1(d) bra and shirt. 1(d) did not know what to do and told Senthil, "No", but the reaction and statement were delayed. Senthil suggested that the two go into his bedroom for more space, even after being told no.

1(d) does not remember exactly how she got to the room but does have a slight memory of being led there. 1(d) stated another reason that she felt as though she had not control of her body was due to Senthil telling her to wrap her legs around him. 1(d) now realized that Senthil was having sexual intercourse with her. Senthil penetrated 1(d) vagina with his penis and 1(d) was too weak to stop him. 1(d) could not stop the rape, nor could she wrap her legs around Senthil or try to prevent him from taking advantage of her. The following morning, 1(d) went to Harborview Medical Center for a sexual assault kit.

1. 7-3-2018-0813 Hours- A call was made to 1(d) The voice mailbox answered and a message was left requesting a call back.

2. 7-3-2018-0900 Hours- 1(d) returned my call and left me a voicemail.

3. 7-3-2018-1230 Hours- A call was made to 1(d) answered the phone and an interview was set up for 7-6-2018 at 0930 hours.

4. 7-3-2018-1243 Hours- An email was sent to [1(d)] and Lisa Immerwahr (Seattle Police Department's Victim Advocate) with conformation on the interview date and time. Shortly after my email, [1(d)] emailed me back with a correction on my date. It was once again confirmed with the correction that I had incorrectly put into the email.

5. 7-6-2018- I looked up the address of 2415 Western AVE, Seattle, WA. Using Google Maps, I took a picture of the building and added it to this file.

6. 7-6-2018- 0900 Hours- A call was made to the rental agency that oversees Griffis Belltown. I requested information on who live(d) in the unit that [1(d)] earlier provided police and was told that I would need to come into the office for this request. Management needed to ensure that this was an active police matter and official business.

7. 7-6-2018-0930 Hours- [1(d)] and her friend, [1(d)] who was asked by [1(d)] to come for support, arrived for the in-person interview. [1(d)] began the conversation explaining how Senthil and she met. [1(d)] was using a dating application called Cupid.

A Google search provided the following information: this platform says that it's the best dating app for meeting exciting local singles, making new friends, and finding your perfect match for a successful long-term relationship. Cupid has over 8 million registered users. [1(d)] met Senthil on this app and the two communicated through this application before exchanging phone numbers and texting each other.

As [1(d)] and Senthil got to know each other more, they decided to meet in person. Senthil and [1(d)] agreed to meet at a coffee shop in Belltown on February 2nd around 5 PM. As [1(d)] was preparing to head towards the coffee shop, the time was changed to 6 PM. [1(d)] was now at the coffee shop early, just before 5:45 PM to buy her coffee and get a seat. [1(d)] wanted to ensure that she paid for her coffee so that there were no expectations of Senthil when he arrived. At or about 5:45 PM, Senthil sent [1(d)] a text requesting that she come to his apartment. Senthil explained that he was waiting for a package to get picked up by UPS and he believed that he planned enough time before meeting at the coffee shop. Looking back on the night, [1(d)] thought that it was strange that Senthil changed plans so close to the time that they were supposed to meet up.

[1(d)] agreed to wait at Senthil's apartment until UPS arrived and believed that they would then go out like originally agreed upon. Senthil provided his address and [1(d)] went to the apartment building. Once at the apartments, [1(d)] contacted Senthil to let him know that she had arrived. Senthil came to the lock out door and stood there without saying anything. [1(d)] believed this to be strange and initiated conversation to ensure that Senthil knew she was in fact [1(d)] Senthil told [1(d)] that he wanted to see how aware of her surroundings she was. Looking back on the event, [1(d)] notices that there were red flags in Senthil's behavior.

Once inside of the apartment, there was a large package in the living room. Senthil pointed out the package and stated that this was what UPS was supposed to pick up. Senthil and 1(d) sat on the couch and talked. 1(d) attempted to leave the apartment with Senthil and get food. Senthil asked if she was hungry and 1(d) stated that she was not. Senthil made a frozen sandwich for himself and asked if 1(d) wanted a drink. Initially 1(d) declined the drink. After a few times of being asked, 1(d) finally agreed to have one drink. Senthil made a rum and coke for both himself and 1(d)

As Senthil made the drinks, his back was turned to 1(d). The living room overlooks the kitchen and the counter allowed Senthil to have his back to 1(d) and look normal. 1(d) mentioned this because she is unsure if Senthil put something into her drink.

Senthil and 1(d) sat at the counter and drank the rum and coke. Senthil asked 1(d) if she smokes marijuana. 1(d) stated that she had in the past, however, was not huge into it. Senthil began to explain a lot about different strands of marijuana and effects. Senthil had cannabis oils for vaping and offered some to 1(d). 1(d) is open to try different things and agreed to vape.

1(d) went to the restroom and when she returned, Senthil had turned off the lights and made his apartment completely dark. 1(d) and Senthil began to vape on the porch and watching the ferries and enjoying the view of Bainbridge Island. Senthil moved in and kissed 1(d) and the two started kissing consensually. Senthil led 1(d) to the couch and 1(d) started to lose a grasp of time. 1(d) nearly tripped over a table that was not there as she was now starting to hallucinate. Senthil told her to calm down because there was not a table there. 1(d) stated that she began to lose consciousness and would come in and out of a sleepy haze. 1(d) had to concentrate extremely hard to keep track of where she was and keep reminding herself of what she was doing. 1(d) coordination was extremely poor and she could not think rationally.

Senthil told 1(d) that they should move from the couch to the bedroom for "more space." 1(d) told Senthil that she did not want to go to the bedroom. Senthil became very "handsy" and was reaching down 1(d) pants and bra. 1(d) continued to tell Senthil, "no." Senthil then told 1(d) that he only wanted to touch and that it does not give him, "license" to do anything else.

At approximately 940 PM, Senthil made a comment that stuck with 1(d). 1(d) explained that as she was in and out of consciousness and losing a grasp of time, Senthil stated that the 940 (PM) ferry was passing. 1(d) stated that when Senthil stated this, it was like time stopped and everything froze. As 1(d) sat there in what appeared as though time was standing still, she watched as the ferry passed by.

Senthil made a statement that snapped her back into the moment when he told

1(d) that he looks for "enthusiastic" consent. This comment broke 1(d) out of the frozen time and she then realized where she was again. 1(d) continued to tell Senthil no and he continued to try sneaking his hands onto her body. Senthil asked if 1(d) was going to take his shirt off. 1(d) thought or said no. 1(d) again in and out of reality and with a spotty memory, remembers standing in the living room. At some point, 1(d) does not know how, she was led into the bedroom by Senthil. 1(d) does not know how much time had passed at this point but she believes hours had passed.

As 1(d) was in the bed with Senthil she was waking up as Senthil was trying to get his hands in the front and back of her pants. 1(d) continued to tell Senthil no and even told him that she wanted to go home. Senthil asked 1(d) how she would get home almost in a mocking manner. Senthil reminded her that it was late and cold outside.

After some time, Senthil was successful at getting 1(d) pants off. Senthil then removed all his clothing. Now laying on the bed, Senthil reached over to a side table. 1(d) is unsure, however, believes that he grabbed a condom. Senthil then put his penis in 1(d) face and asked if there was anything that she wanted to do. 1(d) did not say anything and Senthil forced his penis inside of her mouth. 1(d) was forced to give Senthil oral sex. 1(d) stated that she does not believe that this lasted very long.

1(d) still in and out of reality cannot remember all the details. 1(d) stated that at one point Senthil penetrated 1(d) vagina with his penis after 1(d) repeatedly trying to prevent Senthil from having sexual intercourse with her. Senthil told 1(d) to wrap her legs around him. 1(d) snapped back to reality and realized that she did not have the energy nor the coordination to even move her legs. 1(d) later woke up and Senthil was asleep. 1(d) took this opportunity to gather her belongings and took a Lyft ride home.

1(d) then got home and went to sleep. Once awake, 1(d) showered because she felt so "nasty." 1(d) went to Harborview Medical Center for a sexual assault evaluation.

In the interview, 1(d) could describe the way to Senthil's apartment. The way to the apartment is somewhat difficult with multiple turns. 1(d) described Senthil's apartment and identified unique furniture items. 1(d) memory is very good from the time that she arrived the apartment until shortly after drinking some of the rum and coke and vaping the marijuana. After these events, 1(d) memory faded in and out.

8. 7-9-2018-1230 Hours- I went to 2400 Elliott Ave in Seattle to the Griffis Belltown office and met with Emily Johnson. Emily is the Assistant Community Manager and confirmed that Senthil did live in apartment 206 since November 2017. Emily provided me with the correct name, which in the initial police report was incorrect. Mani is the last name and Senthil is

9. 7-13-2018-0817 Hours- An email was received by the victim stating that she would like to move forward with prosecution on this case. 1(d) provided me with a signed release form, text messages and the Lyft receipt.

10. 7-18-2018-0600-1000 Hours- During this period, I used multiple databases to include MDT, DOL, Linked-In and Accurint to find the full identity and a picture of Senthil. From these searches, it appears Senthil only has identification in New Jersey with the ID#M04306977204892 which is a non-picture ID. Senthil is educated with three Master's degrees, one of which is from Columbia University in New York and a bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering. Mani has been employed since 2011 (which overlapped his college education) and has been employed by at least 7 different companies to include his current title of Senior Program Manager at Amazon. Mani has listed in his Linked-In profile that he speaks three languages; English, Hindi and Tamil. English is specifically designated as his native or bilingual proficiency.

11. 7-18-2018-1336 Hours- Upon completion of all forms needed to have the sexual assault kit processed, I submitted the forms to WSP by email. While completing the forms needed for the testing of the sexual assault kit, the WSP Toxicology Lab request was also completed. This request is for the blood and urine that was collected at the time the kit was taken.

12. 7-20-2018-1725 Hours- A request for Bodycam and In-car video was sent.

13. 7-20-2018-1735 Hours- III was ran with no results.

14. 7-20-2018-1731 Hours- The 911 call and CAD were requested.

15. 8-8-2018-0700 Hours- Looking at the winter schedule for Washington State Ferries, I found no ferries that left at 940 PM on February 2nd. I did find that there were four possible ferries that could have crossed the view of the apartment at 940 PM. Leaving Bremerton on February 2nd was a 9 PM ferry. It takes approximately 60 minutes to go from Bremerton to Seattle on the ferry. There were two ferries that would be reasonable to believe 940 PM ferries passing Senthil's view. Leaving Seattle there were boats at 9:15PM and at 10:05 PM. These times are not exact, however, within 30 minutes of the time. Leaving Bainbridge Island there was a ferry that left at 9 PM. It takes approximately 30 minutes to cross from Bainbridge Island to Seattle using this ferry. This would be approximately 10 minutes from the 940 PM time.

16. 8-8-2018-0900 Hours- This case was submitted to Sgt. Monroe for approval before sending to KCPD. Sgt. Monroe requested the search warrant be completed before sending to KCPD.

17. 8-31-2018-1207 Hours- I emailed 1(d) and requested proof of payment for both the Lyft and for the coffee that she had purchased earlier in the day. I received an email back that provided the information that I requested

18. 9-4-2018-1200 Hours- A search warrant was written requesting permission to take photographs of the interior of Mani.

19. 9-10-2018- The Honorable Judge North reviewed and signed the search warrant allowing me to photograph Mani's residence.

20. 9-13-2018-1200 Hours- I arrived at Mani's residence and knocked on his front door. Mani answered and invited me in. I provided Mani a copy of the search warrant and informed him of why I was there. Immediately Mani began to sweat and was visibly shaking. As I began to take photographs, Mani positioned himself as if he were trying to keep me away from his bedroom. Mani's house was just as described by 1(d) to include the orange couch and the view from the deck. As I was taking pictures from the deck, there were even two ferries passing by. In the cabinets of Mani's kitchen were bottles of alcohol and on the counter, was a pestle and mortar. In Mani's bedroom, there was a glass jar inside of his bedside night stand that was full of condoms.

After taking the pictures I requested an interview with Mani and he declined to provide one. Mani stated that his parents were coming into town and he had to get them from the airport in 15 minutes. The airport is a minimum of 30-45-minute drive from his apartment to SeaTac.

21. 9-17-2018-0800 Hours- This case was submitted to Sgt. Monroe for approval before sending to KCPO for filing.

Certification for Determination of Probable Cause

That Anthony M. Belgarde is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case number 2018-239951. There is probable cause to believe that Mani, Senthil K 4-24-1989 committed the crime of RCW 9A.44.050 Rape in the second degree within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington. This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances.

In December of 2017 Y.H. used a mobile app called Cupid to meet new people. Y.H. met a man named Senthil K. Mani through this app and the two began to communicate regularly. Y.H. learned about Senthil and his life. Senthil informed Y.H. of his age, place of employment and his job title with Amazon. Senthil appeared to Y.H. to be responsible, nice and a person that she may be interested in hanging out with and getting to know. Y.H. and Senthil decided to communicate via text messaging rather than through the Cupid application. Y.H. and Senthil exchanged phone numbers eliminating the need for the Cupid application.

Late January of 2018 to early February of 2018, Y.H. and Senthil decided to meet in person. Y.H. knew that Senthil lived in the Belltown area and offered to meet him close to his house. Y.H. was comfortable with the Belltown area since she lived in the area previously. Y.H. suggested to meet at Krispy Kreme Doughnuts and Senthil declined and requested a coffee shop instead. Y.H. agreed and they set the time for 5 PM on February 2nd 2018.

February 2nd 2018 Y.H. received a text message from Senthil requesting to push the time to meet for 6 PM. Senthil informed Y.H. that he was waiting for UPS to pick up a package and believed that it would have been gone sooner. Y.H. agreed and decided to go to the coffee shop around 5:45 PM and purchase her coffee before Senthil arrived. Shortly after Y.H. arrived, Senthil sent another text message. This time the text message was requesting that Y.H. come to his apartment until UPS arrived. Once again, Y.H. agreed and Senthil provided his address to her. Y.H. walked to the apartment building which is approximately five minutes (walk) from the coffee shop.

Y.H. walked around the building to ensure that she was aware of her surroundings and got to know details of the area. Y.H. felt comfortable with where she was and contacted Senthil. Senthil came down to the lockout door and held it open. Y.H. felt awkward as Senthil just stood in the doorway and did not say anything. Y.H. made a comment to Senthil asking if he was not going to talk with her. Senthil finally began to speak and the two made their way to his apartment.

Y.H. kept a mental note of how to get to Senthil's apartment. Y.H. remembered that there were a lot of turns after getting off the elevator. Once inside of the apartment, Y.H. noticed that Senthil had an orange or red couch that was partially on a throw rug in his Livingroom. Y.H. stated that the color of the couch was not normal and therefore it stuck with her. In the middle of the floor, there was a large box which Senthil pointed out being the one for UPS to pick up.

Senthil would check his cellular phone and stated that he was checking to see if he had any missed calls, messages or emails from UPS.

Y.H. and Senthil were sitting in the living room talking to pass the time as they waited. Eventually Senthil asked Y.H. if she would like a drink. After initially declining a drink, Senthil could talk Y.H. into one with persistence. Senthil finally gave up on the UPS coming and Y.H. asked if they could go get dinner. Senthil and Y.H. were not very hungry and decided to stay in. After Y.H. consumed the alcoholic drink, Senthil began a conversation about marijuana. Y.H. has explored minimally with drugs and Senthil showed his expertise in marijuana knowledge. Senthil could explain different strands and effects of the strands. Senthil knew about the oils that could be taken from the marijuana and the best way to enjoy.

Y.H. and Senthil began to "vape" and this is when Y.H. becomes fuzzy on details from the night. Y.H. who has consumed less than one alcoholic beverage of rum and coke is now struggling to keep up with conversations aware of her surroundings. Senthil went to the restroom and all the lights were dimmed as he exited the living room. Y.H. sat on the couch waiting for Senthil to return and attempted to keep herself awake and or aware of what was happening.

Senthil returned to the living room and began to kiss Y.H. who was ok with kissing. Y.H. still on the couch realized that she could not feel her legs or body. Y.H. who was very slow to process information was still kissing Senthil when he began and successfully unhooked Y.H.'s bra. As Y.H. struggled to process what was happening, there was a delay from the incident occurring to when she could speak. Senthil pulled Y.H.'s shirt and bra off, once the shirt and bra were fully removed, Y.H. was able to process the information and told Senthil, "NO". Senthil ignored Y.H. who told him no, Y.H. further tried to stop Senthil by pulling his hands off her.

Senthil told Y.H. "I just want to touch". Senthil followed this comment up with something to the effect of, touching does not give me permission for anything else. Senthil then told Y.H. "I look for enthusiastic consent". Shortly after Senthil made these comments, he escorted Y.H. to his bedroom. Y.H. is unclear on how she arrived inside of the bedroom and cannot remember if she was forced inside or not. Y.H. stated that she was at least led to the bedroom.

Y.H. told Senthil that she wanted to leave and he mocked her by saying what she had said in a childish manner.

Inside of the bedroom, Y.H. recalls that Senthil leaned over to his night stand and grabbed something. As Senthil was laying with his penis near Y.H.'s face he asked, "is there something you want to do before I put this on?" Y.H. believes that Senthil was talking about putting a condom on. Senthil put his erect penis inside of Y.H.'s mouth. Y.H. does not recall what exactly took place while Senthil was holding his penis inside of her mouth, however, remembers that it was not inside her mouth very long as she was forced to perform oral sex on Senthil.

Senthil then began to have sex with Y.H. by putting his penis inside of her vagina and thrusting. At one point, Senthil was straddling Y.H. when he told her to wrap her legs around him. Y.H. realized that she did not have any control or ability to wrap her legs around him.

Y.H. remembers that the forced sexual encounter occurred for nearly an hour and after Senthil was done, he went to sleep. Y.H. was still feeling the effects of the drug or alcohol that she was given and fell in and out of sleep for a couple of hours. Y.H. finally awoke and realized that she was not in a good place. Y.H. gathered her belongings and left calling a Lyft for a ride.

The following morning, Y.H. checked herself into Harborview Medical Center for a sexual assault examination. Y.H. sat alone for the next six hours to get the exam completed.

Senthil attempted to contact Y.H. a couple of times after this incident and Y.H. did not respond to any of his attempts. Y.H. contacted the Seattle Police Department in July and explained that she was afraid of the process to report this incident. Y.H. wasn't sure what if anything could be done and did not wish to further damage her emotional state. Y.H. was in contact with a victim advocate from the Seattle Police Department who explained the process and ensured that steps on cases like these were clear.

On 9-13-2018 Detectives served a search warrant on Mani's residence where photographs were taken of his residence. These photographs confirmed the layout of the apartment and showed that the kitchen would allow the opportunity for drinks to be made with a person in the living room not being able to see the drinks being made. The couch in the living room was a unique orange color that was described by the victim. Inside of the bedroom, a jar of condoms was located and photographed in the bottom part of the night stand. These photographs showed the victim's memory of the apartment was consistent with the events from that night.

suggested that the two go into his bedroom for more space, even after being told no.

1(d) does not remember exactly how she got to the room but does have a slight memory of being led there. 1(d) stated another reason that she felt as though she had not control of her body was due to Senthil telling her to wrap her legs around him. 1(d) now realized that Senthil was having sexual intercourse with her. Senthil penetrated 1(d) vagina with his penis and 1(d) was too weak to stop him. 1(d) could not stop the rape, nor could she wrap her legs around Senthil or try to prevent him from taking advantage of her. The following morning, 1(d) went to Harborview Medical Center for a sexual assault kit.

1. 7-3-2018-0813 Hours- A call was made to 1(d) The voice mailbox answered and a message was left requesting a call back.

2. 7-3-2018-0900 Hours- 1(d) returned my call and left me a voicemail.

Shortly after my email, 1(d) emailed me back with a correction on my date. It was once again confirmed with the correction that I had incorrectly put into the email.

I requested information on who live(d) in the unit that 1(d) earlier provided police and was told that I would need to come into the office for this request. Management needed to ensure that this was an active police matter and official business.

7. 7-6-2018-0930 Hours- 1(d) and her friend, 1(d) who was asked by 1(d) to come for support, arrived for the in-person interview. 1(d) began the conversation explaining how Senthil and she met. 1(d) was using a dating application called Cupid.

A Google search provided the following information: this platform says that it's the best dating app for meeting exciting local singles, making new friends, and finding your perfect match for a successful long-term relationship. Cupid has over 8 million registered users. 1(d) met Senthil on this app and the two communicated through this application before exchanging phone numbers and texting each other.

February 2nd around 5 PM. As 1(d) was preparing to head towards the coffee shop, the time was changed to 6 PM. 1(d) was now at the coffee shop early, just before 5:45 PM to buy her coffee and get a seat. 1(d) wanted to ensure that she paid for her coffee so that there were no expectations of Senthil when he arrived. At or about 5:45 PM, Senthil sent 1(d) a text requesting that she come to his apartment. Senthil explained that he was waiting for a package to get picked up by UPS and he believed that he planned enough time before meeting at the coffee shop. Looking back on the night, 1(d) thought that it was strange that Senthil changed plans so close to the time that they were supposed to meet up.

1(d) agreed to wait at Senthil's apartment until UPS arrived and believed that they would then go out like originally agreed upon. Senthil provided his address and 1(d) went to the apartment building. Once at the apartments, 1(d) contacted Senthil to let him know that she had arrived. Senthil came to the lock out door and stood there without saying anything. 1(d) believed this to be strange and initiated conversation to ensure that Senthil knew she was in fact 1(d). Senthil told 1(d) that he wanted to see how aware of her surroundings she was. Looking back on the event, 1(d) notices that there were red flags in Senthil's behavior.

Once inside of the apartment, there was a large package in the living room. Senthil pointed out the package and stated that this was what UPS was supposed to pick up. Senthil and 1(d) sat on the couch and talked. 1(d) attempted to leave the apartment with Senthil and get food. Senthil asked if she was hungry and 1(d) stated that she was not. Senthil made a frozen sandwich for himself and asked if 1(d) wanted a drink. Initially 1(d) declined the drink. After a few times of being asked, 1(d) finally agreed to have one drink. Senthil made a rum and coke for both himself and 1(d).

As Senthil made the drinks, his back was turned to 1(d). The living room overlooks the kitchen and the counter allowed Senthil to have his back to 1(d) and look normal. 1(d) mentioned this because she is unsure if Senthil put something into her drink.

Senthil and 1(d) sat at the counter and drank the rum and coke. Senthil asked 1(d) if she smokes marijuana. 1(d) stated that she had in the past, however, was not huge into it. Senthil began to explain a lot about different strands of marijuana and effects. Senthil had cannabis oils for vaping and offered some to 1(d). 1(d) is open to try different things and agreed to vape.

1(d) went to the restroom and when she returned, Senthil had turned off the lights and made his apartment completely dark. 1(d) and Senthil began to vape on the porch and watching the ferries and enjoying the view of Bainbridge Island. Senthil moved in a kissed 1(d) and the two started kissing consensually. Senthil led 1(d) to the couch and 1(d) started to lose a grasp of time. 1(d) nearly tripped over a table that was not there as she was now starting to hallucinate. Senthil told her to calm down because there was not a table there. 1(d) stated that she began to lose consciousness and would come in and out of a sleepy haze. [1(d)] had to concentrate extremely hard to keep track of where she was and keep reminding herself of what she was doing. [1(d)] coordination was extremely poor and she could not think rationally.

Senthil told [1(d)] that they should move from the couch to the bedroom for "more space." [1(d)] told Senthil that she did not want to go to the bedroom. Senthil became very "handsy" and was reaching down [1(d)] pants and bra. [1(d)] continued to tell Senthil, "no." Senthil then told [1(d)] that he only wanted to touch and that it does not give him, "license" to do anything else.

At approximately 940 PM, Senthil made a comment that stuck with [1(d)] [1(d)] explained that as she was in and out of consciousness and losing a grasp of time, Senthil stated that the 940 (PM) ferry was passing. [1(d)] stated that when Senthil stated this, it was like time stopped and everything froze. As [1(d)] sat there in what appeared as though time was standing still, she watched as the ferry passed by.

Senthil made a statement that snapped her back into the moment when he told [1(d)] that he looks for "enthusiastic" consent. This comment broke [1(d)] out of the frozen time and she then realized where she was again. [1(d)] continued to tell Senthil no and he continued to try sneaking his hands onto her body. Senthil asked if [1(d)] was going to take his shirt off. [1(d)] thought or said no. [1(d)] again in and out of reality and with a spotty memory, remembers standing in the living room. At some point, [1(d)] does not know how, she was led into the bedroom by Senthil. [1(d)] does not know how much time had passed at this point but she believes hours had passed.

As [1(d)] was in the bed with Senthil she was waking up as Senthil was trying to get his hands in the front and back of her pants. [1(d)] continued to tell Senthil no and even told him that she wanted to go home. Senthil asked [1(d)] how she would get home almost in a mocking manner. Senthil reminded her that it was late and cold outside.

After some time, Senthil was successful at getting [1(d)] pants off. Senthil then removed all his clothing. Now laying on the bed, Senthil reached over to a side table. [1(d)] is unsure, however, believes that he grabbed a condom. Senthil then put his penis in [1(d)] face and asked if there was anything that she wanted to do. [1(d)] did not say anything and Senthil forced his penis inside of her mouth. [1(d)] was forced to give Senthil oral sex. [1(d)] stated that she does not believe that this lasted very long.

nor the coordination to even move her legs. [1(d)] later woke up and Senthil was asleep. [1(d)] took this opportunity to gather her belongings and took a Lyft ride home.

[1(d)] then got home and went to sleep. Once awake, [1(d)] showered because she felt so "nasty." [1(d)] went to Harborview Medical Center for a sexual assault evaluation.

In the interview, [1(d)] could describe the way to Senthil's apartment. The way to the apartment is somewhat difficult with multiple turns. [1(d)] described Senthil's apartment and identified unique furniture items. [1(d)] memory is very good from the time that she arrived the apartment until shortly after drinking some of the rum and coke and vaping the marijuana. After these events, [1(d)] memory faded in and out.

8. 7-9-2018-1230 Hours- I went to 2400 Elliott Ave in Seattle to the Griffis Belltown office and met with Emily Johnson. Emily is the Assistant Community Manager and confirmed that Senthil did live in apartment 206 since November 2017. Emily provided me with the correct name, which in the initial police report was incorrect. Mani is the last name and Senthil is the first name of the suspect.

9. 7-13-2018-0817 Hours- An email was received by the victim stating that she would like to move forward with prosecution on this case. [1(d)] provided me with a signed release form, text messages and the Lyft receipt.

10. 7-18-2018-0600-1000 Hours- During this period, I used multiple databases to include MDT, DOL, Linked-In and Accurint to find the full identity and a picture of Senthil. From these searches, it appears Senthil only has identification in New Jersey with the ID#M04306977204892 which is a non-picture ID. Senthil is educated with three Master's degrees, one of which is from Columbia University in New York and a bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering. Mani has been employed since 2011 (which overlapped his college education) and has been employed by at least 7 different companies to include his current title of Senior Program Manager at Amazon. Mani has listed in his Linked-In profile that he speaks three languages; English, Hindi and Tamil. English is specifically designated as his native or bilingual proficiency.

15. 8-8-2018-0700 Hours- Looking at the winter schedule for Washington State Ferries, I found no ferries that left at 940 PM on February 2nd. I did find that there were four possible ferries that could have crossed the view of the apartment at 940 PM. Leaving Bremerton on February 2nd was a 9 PM ferry. It takes approximately 60 minutes to go from Bremerton to Seattle on the ferry. There were two ferries that would be reasonable to believe 940 PM ferries passing Senthil's view. Leaving Seattle there were boats at 9:15PM and at 10:05 PM. These times are not exact, however, within 30 minutes of the time. Leaving Bainbridge Island there was a ferry that left at 9 PM. It takes approximately 30 minutes to cross from Bainbridge Island to Seattle using this ferry. This would be approximately 10 minutes from the 940 PM time.

16. 8-8-2018-0900 Hours- This case was submitted to Sgt. Monroe for approval before sending to KCPO. Sgt. Monroe requested the search warrant be completed before sending to KCPO.

17. 8-31-2018-1207 Hours- I emailed [1(d)] and requested proof of payment for both the Lyft and for the coffee that she had purchased earlier in the day. I received an email back that provided the information that I requested

18. 9-4-2018-1200 Hours- A search warrant was written requesting permission to take photographs of the interior of Mani.

19. 9-10-2018- The Honorable Judge North reviewed and signed the search warrant allowing me to photograph Mani's residence.

20. 9-13-2018-1200 Hours- I arrived at Mani's residence and knocked on his front door. Mani answered and invited me in. I provided Mani a copy of the search warrant and informed him of why I was there. Immediately Mani began to sweat and was visibly shaking. As I began to take photographs, Mani positioned himself as if he were trying to keep me away from his bedroom. Mani's house was just as described by [1(d)] to include the orange couch and the view from the deck. As I was taking pictures from the deck, there were even two ferries passing by. In the cabinets of Mani's kitchen were bottles of alcohol and on the counter, was a pestle and mortar. In Mani's bedroom, there was a glass jar inside of his bedside night stand that was full of condoms.

After taking the pictures I requested an interview with Mani and he declined to provide one. Mani stated that his parents were coming into town and he had to get them from the airport in 15 minutes. The airport is a minimum of 30-45-minute drive from his apartment to SeaTac.

21. 9-17-2018-0800 Hours- This case was submitted to Sgt. Monroe for approval before sending to KCPO for filing.

Certification for Determination of Probable Cause

That Anthony M. Belgarde is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case number 2018-239951. There is probable cause to believe that Mani, Senthil K 4-24-1989 committed the crime of RCW 9A.44.050 Rape in the second degree within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington. This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances.

In December of 2017 Y.H. used a mobile app called Cupid to meet new people. Y.H. met a man named Senthil K. Mani through this app and the two began to communicate regularly. Y.H. learned about Senthil and his life. Senthil informed Y.H. of his age, place of employment and his job title with Amazon. Senthil appeared to Y.H. to be responsible, nice and a person that she may be interested in hanging out with and getting to know. Y.H. and Senthil decided to communicate via text messaging rather than through the Cupid application. Y.H. and Senthil exchanged phone numbers eliminating the need for the Cupid application.

Late January of 2018 to early February of 2018, Y.H. and Senthil decided to meet in person. Y.H. knew that Senthil lived in the Belltown area and offered to meet him close to his house. Y.H. was comfortable with the Belltown area since she lived in the area previously. Y.H. suggested to meet at Krispy Kreme Doughnuts and Senthil declined and requested a coffee shop instead. Y.H. agreed and they set the time for 5 PM on February 2nd 2018.

February 2nd 2018 Y.H. received a text message from Senthil requesting to push the time to meet for 6 PM. Senthil informed Y.H. that he was waiting for UPS to pick up a package and believed that it would have been gone sooner. Y.H. agreed and decided to go to the coffee shop around 5:45 PM and purchase her coffee before Senthil arrived. Shortly after Y.H. arrived, Senthil sent another text message. This time the text message was requesting that Y.H. come to his apartment until UPS arrived. Once again, Y.H. agreed and Senthil provided his address to her. Y.H. walked to the apartment building which is approximately five minutes (walk) from the coffee shop.

Y.H. walked around the building to ensure that she was aware of her surroundings and got to know details of the area. Y.H. felt comfortable with where she was and contacted Senthil. Senthil came down to the lockout door and held it open. Y.H. felt awkward as Senthil just stood in the doorway and did not say anything. Y.H. made a comment to Senthil asking if he was not going to talk with her. Senthil finally began to speak and the two made their way to his apartment.

Y.H. kept a mental note of how to get to Senthil's apartment. Y.H. remembered that there were a lot of turns after getting off the elevator. Once inside of the apartment, Y.H. noticed that Senthil had an orange or red couch that was partially on a throw rug in his Livingroom. Y.H. stated that the color of the couch was not normal and therefore it stuck with her. In the middle of the floor, there was a large box which Senthil pointed out being the one for UPS to pick up.

Senthil would check his cellular phone and stated that he was checking to see if he had any missed calls, messages or emails from UPS.

Y.H. and Senthil were sitting in the living room talking to pass the time as they waited. Eventually Senthil asked Y.H. if she would like a drink. After initially declining a drink, Senthil could talk Y.H. into one with persistence. Senthil finally gave up on the UPS coming and Y.H. asked if they could go get dinner. Senthil and Y.H. were not very hungry and decided to stay in. After Y.H. consumed the alcoholic drink, Senthil began a conversation about marijuana. Y.H. has explored minimally with drugs and Senthil showed his expertise in marijuana knowledge. Senthil could explain different strands and effects of the strands. Senthil knew about the oils that could be taken from the marijuana and the best way to enjoy.

Y.H. and Senthil began to "vape" and this is when Y.H. becomes fuzzy on details from the night. Y.H. who has consumed less than one alcoholic beverage of rum and coke is now struggling to keep up with conversations aware of her surroundings. Senthil went to the restroom and all the lights were dimmed as he exited the living room. Y.H. sat on the couch waiting for Senthil to return and attempted to keep herself awake and or aware of what was happening.

Senthil returned to the living room and began to kiss Y.H. who was ok with kissing. Y.H. still on the couch realized that she could not feel her legs or body. Y.H. who was very slow to process information was still kissing Senthil when he began and successfully unhooked Y.H.'s bra. As Y.H. struggled to process what was happening, there was a delay from the incident occurring to when she could speak. Senthil pulled Y.H.'s shirt and bra off, once the shirt and bra were fully removed, Y.H. was able to process the information and told Senthil, "NO". Senthil ignored Y.H. who told him no, Y.H. further tried to stop Senthil by pulling his hands off her.

Senthil told Y.H. "I just want to touch". Senthil followed this comment up with something to the effect of, touching does not give me permission for anything else. Senthil then told Y.H. "I look for enthusiastic consent". Shortly after Senthil made these comments, he escorted Y.H. to his bedroom. Y.H. is unclear on how she arrived inside of the bedroom and cannot remember if she was forced inside or not. Y.H. stated that she was at least led to the bedroom.

Y.H. told Senthil that she wanted to leave and he mocked her by saying what she had said in a childish manner.

Inside of the bedroom, Y.H. recalls that Senthil leaned over to his night stand and grabbed something. As Senthil was laying with his penis near Y.H.'s face he asked, "is there something you want to do before I put this on?" Y.H. believes that Senthil was talking about putting a condom on. Senthil put his erect penis inside of Y.H.'s mouth. Y.H. does not recall what exactly took place while Senthil was holding his penis inside of her mouth, however, remembers that it was not inside her mouth very long as she was forced to perform oral sex on Senthil.

Senthil then began to have sex with Y.H. by putting his penis inside of her vagina and thrusting. At one point, Senthil was straddling Y.H. when he told her to wrap her legs around him. Y.H. realized that she did not have any control or ability to wrap her legs around him.

Y.H. remembers that the forced sexual encounter occurred for nearly an hour and after Senthil was done, he went to sleep. Y.H. was still feeling the effects of the drug or alcohol that she was given and fell in and out of sleep for a couple of hours. Y.H. finally awoke and realized that she was not in a good place. Y.H. gathered her belongings and left calling a Lyft for a ride.

The following morning, Y.H. checked herself into Harborview Medical Center for a sexual assault examination. Y.H. sat alone for the next six hours to get the exam completed.

Senthil attempted to contact Y.H. a couple of times after this incident and Y.H. did not respond to any of his attempts. Y.H. contacted the Seattle Police Department in July and explained that she was afraid of the process to report this incident. Y.H. wasn't sure what if anything could be done and did not wish to further damage her emotional state. Y.H. was in contact with a victim advocate from the Seattle Police Department who explained the process and ensured that steps on cases like these were clear.

On 9-13-2018 Detectives served a search warrant on Mani's residence where photographs were taken of his residence. These photographs confirmed the layout of the apartment and showed that the kitchen would allow the opportunity for drinks to be made with a person in the living room not being able to see the drinks being made. The couch in the living room was a unique orange color that was described by the victim. Inside of the bedroom, a jar of condoms was located and photographed in the bottom part of the night stand. These photographs showed the victim's memory of the apartment was consistent with the events from that night.

On 7-3-2018 I was assigned this case for review. Upon reading the initial police report, I learned that V/ 1(d) met a man that she identified as Senthil Mani, Senthil 4-24-1989 on a dating application. 1(d) and Senthil decided to meet each other in person at a local café at approximately 1800 hours.

Upon 1(d) arrival, Senthil requested that 1(d) come to his apartment. Senthil stated that he was waiting for UPS and believed they would have been to his residence before the arranged time to meet. 1(d) agreed and went to Senthil's apartment. 1(d) and Senthil began to drink and smoke a vape cigarette. 1(d) started to feel drowsy and believes that she may have been drugged. 1(d) felt as though she did not have control of her body as she lost track of time and seemed to slip in and out of consciousness.

1(d) and Senthil were on the couch kissing as Senthil continued to try and put his hands down 1(d) pants. 1(d) could only tell Senthil no and attempt to move his hand, however, was very weak in doing so. Senthil removed 1(d) bra and shirt. 1(d) did not know what to do and told Senthil, "No", but the reaction and statement were delayed. Senthil suggested that the two go into his bedroom for more space, even after being told no.

1(d) does not remember exactly how she got to the room but does have a slight memory of being led there. 1(d) stated another reason that she felt as though she had not control of her body was

Seattle Police Department Case Investigation Report

As [1(d)] and Senthil got to know each other more, they decided to meet in person. Senthil and [1(d)] agreed to meet at a coffee shop in Belltown on February 2nd around 5 PM. As [1(d)] was preparing to head towards the coffee shop, the time was changed to 6 PM. [1(d)] was now at the coffee shop early, just before 5:45 PM to buy her coffee and get a seat. [1(d)] wanted to ensure that she paid for her coffee so that there were no expectations of Senthil when he arrived. At or about 5:45 PM, Senthil sent [1(d)] a text requesting that she come to his apartment. Senthil explained that he was waiting for a package to get picked up by UPS and he believed that he planned enough time before meeting at the coffee shop. Looking back on the night, [1(d)] thought that it was strange that Senthil changed plans so close to the time that they were supposed to meet up.

[1(d)] agreed to wait at Senthil's apartment until UPS arrived and believed that they would then go out like originally agreed upon. Senthil provided his address and [1(d)] went to the apartment building. Once at the apartments, [1(d)] contacted Senthil to let him know that she had arrived. Senthil came to the lock out door and stood there without saying anything. [1(d)] believed this to be strange and initiated conversation to ensure that Senthil knew she was in fact [1(d)]. Senthil told [1(d)] that he wanted to see how aware of her surroundings she was. Looking back on the event, [1(d)] notices that there were red flags in Senthil's behavior.

Once inside of the apartment, there was a large package in the living room. Senthil pointed out the package and stated that this was what UPS was supposed to pick up. Senthil and [1(d)] sat on the couch and talked. [1(d)] attempted to leave the apartment with Senthil and get food. Senthil asked if she was hungry and [1(d)] stated that she was not. Senthil made a frozen sandwich for himself and asked if [1(d)] wanted a drink. Initially [1(d)] declined the drink. After a few times of being asked, [1(d)] finally agreed to have one drink. Senthil made a rum and coke for both himself and [1(d)].

As Senthil made the drinks, his back was turned to [1(d)]. The living room overlooks the kitchen and the counter allowed Senthil to have his back to [1(d)] and look normal. [1(d)] mentioned this because she is unsure if Senthil put something into her drink.

Senthil and [1(d)] sat at the counter and drank the rum and coke. Senthil asked [1(d)] if she smokes marijuana. [1(d)] stated that she had in the past, however, was not huge into it. Senthil began to explain a lot about different strands of marijuana and effects. Senthil had cannabis oils for vaping and offered some to [1(d)]. [1(d)] is open to try different things and agreed to vape.

Seattle Police Department Case Investigation Report

1(d) went to the restroom and when she returned, Senthil had turned off the lights and made his apartment completely dark. 1(d) and Senthil began to vape on the porch and watching the ferries and enjoying the view of Bainbridge Island. Senthil moved in a kissed 1(d) and the two started kissing consensually. Senthil led 1(d) to the couch and 1(d) started to lose a grasp of time. 1(d) nearly tripped over a table that was not there as she was now starting to hallucinate. Senthil told her to calm down because there was not a table there. 1(d) stated that she began to lose consciousness and would come in and out of a sleepy haze. 1(d) had to concentrate extremely hard to keep track of where she was and keep reminding herself of what she was doing. 1(d) coordination was extremely poor and she could not think rationally.

Senthil told 1(d) that they should move from the couch to the bedroom for "more space." 1(d) told Senthil that she did not want to go to the bedroom. Senthil became very "handsy" and was reaching down 1(d) pants and bra. 1(d) continued to tell Senthil, "no." Senthil then told 1(d) that he only wanted to touch and that it does not give him, "license" to do anything else.

At approximately 940 PM, Senthil made a comment that stuck with 1(d) explained that as she was in and out of consciousness and losing a grasp of time, Senthil stated that the 940 (PM) ferry was passing. 1(d) stated that when Senthil stated this, it was like time stopped and everything froze. As 1(d) sat there in what appeared as though time was standing still, she watched as the ferry passed by.

Senthil made a statement that snapped her back into the moment when he told 1(d) that he looks for "enthusiastic" consent. This comment broke 1(d) out of the frozen time and she then realized where she was again. 1(d) continued to tell Senthil no and he continued to try sneaking his hands onto her body. Senthil asked if 1(d) was going to take his shirt off. 1(d) thought or said no. 1(d) again in and out of reality and with a spotty memory, remembers standing in the living room. At some point, 1(d) does not know how, she was led into the bedroom by Senthil. 1(d) does not know how much time had passed at this point but she believes hours had passed.

As 1(d) was in the bed with Senthil she was waking up as Senthil was trying to get his hands in the front and back of her pants. 1(d) continued to tell Senthil no and even told him that she wanted to go home. Senthil asked 1(d) how she would get home almost in a mocking manner. Senthil reminded her that it was late and cold outside.

After some time, Senthil was successful at getting 1(d) pants off. Senthil then removed all his clothing. Now laying on the bed, Senthil reached over to a side table. 1(d) is unsure, however, believes that he grabbed a condom. Senthil then put his penis in 1(d) face and asked if there was anything that she wanted to do. [1(d)] did not say anything and Senthil forced his penis inside of her mouth. [1(d)] was forced to give Senthil oral sex. [1(d)] stated that she does not believe that this lasted very long.

[1(d)] still in and out of reality cannot remember all the details. [1(d)] stated that at one point Senthil penetrated [1(d)] vagina with his penis after [1(d)] repeatedly trying to prevent Senthil from having sexual intercourse with her. Senthil told [1(d)] to wrap her legs around him. [1(d)] snapped back to reality and realized that she did not have the energy nor the coordination to even move her legs. [1(d)] later woke up and Senthil was asleep. [1(d)] took this opportunity to gather her belongings and took a Lyft ride home.

[1(d)] then got home and went to sleep. Once awake, [1(d)] showered because she felt so "nasty." [1(d)] went to Harborview Medical Center for a sexual assault evaluation.

In the interview, [1(d)] could describe the way to Senthil's apartment. The way to the apartment is somewhat difficult with multiple turns. [1(d)] described Senthil's apartment and identified unique furniture items. [1(d)] memory is very good from the time that she arrived the apartment until shortly after drinking some of the rum and coke and vaping the marijuana. After these events, [1(d)] memory faded in and out.

8. 7-9-2018-1230 Hours- I went to 2400 Elliott Ave in Seattle to the Griffis Belltown office and met with Emily Johnson. Emily is the Assistant Community Manager and confirmed that Senthil did live in apartment 206 since November 2017. Emily provided me with the correct name, which in the initial police report was incorrect. Mani is the last name and Senthil is the first name of the suspect.
9. 7-13-2018-0817 Hours- An email was received by the victim stating that she would like to move forward with prosecution on this case. [1(d)] provided me with a signed release form, text messages and the Lyft receipt.
10. 7-18-2018-0600-1000 Hours- During this period, I used multiple databases to include MDT, DOL, Linked-In and Accurant to find the full identity and a picture of Senthil. From these searches, it appears Senthil only has identification in New Jersey with the ID#M04306977204892 which is a non-picture ID. Senthil is educated with three Master's degrees, one of which is from Columbia University in New York and a bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering. Mani has been Mani has listed in his Linked-In profile that he speaks three languages; English, Hindi and Tamil. English is specifically designated as his native or bilingual proficiency.

11. 7-18-2018-1336 Hours- Upon completion of all forms needed to have the sexual assault kit processed, I submitted the forms to WSP by email. While completing the forms needed for the testing of the sexual assault kit, the WSP Toxicology Lab request was also completed. This request is for the blood and urine that was collected at the time the kit was taken.
12. 7-20-2018-1725 Hours- A request for Bodycam and In-car video was sent.
13. 7-20-2018-1735 Hours- III was ran with no results.
14. 7-20-2018-1731 Hours- The 911 call and CAD were requested.
15. 8-8-2018-0700 Hours- Looking at the winter schedule for Washington State Ferries, I found no ferries that left at 940 PM on February 2nd. I did find that there were four possible ferries that could have crossed the view of the apartment at 940 PM. Leaving Bremerton on February 2nd was a 9 PM ferry. It takes approximately 60 minutes to go from Bremerton to Seattle on the ferry. There were two ferries that would be reasonable to believe 940 PM ferries passing Senthil's view. Leaving Seattle there were boats at 9:15PM and at 10:05 PM. These times are not exact, however, within 30 minutes of the time. Leaving Bainbridge Island there was a ferry that left at 9 PM. It takes approximately 30 minutes to cross from Bainbridge Island to Seattle using this ferry. This would be approximately 10 minutes from the 940 PM time.
16. 8-8-2018-0900 Hours- This case was submitted to Sgt. Monroe for approval before sending to KCPO. Sgt. Monroe requested the search warrant be completed before sending to KCPO.
17. 8-31-2018-1207 Hours- I emailed (d) and requested proof of payment for both the Lyft and for the coffee that she had purchased earlier in the day. I received an email back that provided the information that I requested

19. 9-10-2018- The Honorable Judge North reviewed and signed the search warrant allowing me to photograph Mani's residence.

20. 9-13-2018-1200 Hours- I arrived at Mani's residence and knocked on his front door. Mani answered and invited me in. I provided Mani a copy of the search warrant and informed him of why I was there. Immediately Mani began to sweat and was visibly shaking. As I began to take photographs, Mani positioned himself as if he were trying to keep me away from his bedroom. Mani's house was just as described by 1(d) to include the orange couch and the view from the deck. As I was taking pictures from the deck, there were even two ferries passing by. In the cabinets of Mani's kitchen were bottles of alcohol and on the counter, was a pestle and mortar. In Mani's bedroom, there was a glass jar inside of his bedside night stand that was full of condoms.

After taking the pictures I requested an interview with Mani and he declined to provide one. Mani stated that his parents were coming into town and he had to get them from the airport in 15 minutes. The airport is a minimum of 30-45-minute drive from his apartment to SeaTac.

21. 9-17-2018-0800 Hours- This case was submitted to Sgt. Monroe for approval before sending to KCPO for filing.

Certification for Determination of Probable Cause

That Anthony M. Belgarde is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case number 2018-239951. There is probable cause to believe that Mani, Senthil K 4-24-1989 committed the crime of RCW 9A.44.050 Rape in the second degree within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington. This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances.

In December of 2017 Y.H. used a mobile app called Cupid to meet new people. Y.H. met a man named Senthil K. Mani through this app and the two began to communicate regularly. Y.H. learned about Senthil and his life. Senthil informed Y.H. of his age, place of employment and his job title with Amazon. Senthil appeared to Y.H. to be responsible, nice and a person that she may be interested in hanging out with and getting to know. Y.H. and Senthil decided to communicate via text messaging rather than through the Cupid application. Y.H. and Senthil exchanged phone numbers eliminating the need for the Cupid application.

Late January of 2018 to early February of 2018, Y.H. and Senthil decided to meet in person. Y.H. knew that Senthil lived in the Belltown area and offered to meet him close to his house. Y.H. was comfortable with the Belltown area since she lived in the area previously. Y.H. suggested to meet at Krispy Kreme Doughnuts and Senthil declined and requested a coffee shop instead. Y.H. agreed and they set the time for 5 PM on February 2nd 2018.

February 2nd 2018 Y.H. received a text message from Senthil requesting to push the time to meet for 6 PM. Senthil informed Y.H. that he was waiting for UPS to pick up a package and believed that it would have been gone sooner. Y.H. agreed and decided to go to the coffee shop around 5:45 PM and purchase her coffee before Senthil arrived. Shortly after Y.H. arrived, Senthil sent another text message. This time the text message was requesting that Y.H. come to his apartment until UPS arrived. Once again, Y.H. agreed and Senthil provided his address to her. Y.H. walked to the apartment building which is approximately five minutes (walk) from the coffee shop.

Y.H. walked around the building to ensure that she was aware of her surroundings and got to know details of the area. Y.H. felt comfortable with where she was and contacted Senthil. Senthil came down to the lockout door and held it open. Y.H. felt awkward as Senthil just stood in the doorway and did not say anything. Y.H. made a comment to Senthil asking if he was not going to talk with her. Senthil finally began to speak and the two made their way to his apartment.

Seattle Police Department Case Investigation Report

Y.H. kept a mental note of how to get to Senthil's apartment. Y.H. remembered that there were a lot of turns after getting off the elevator. Once inside of the apartment, Y.H. noticed that Senthil had an orange or red couch that was partially on a throw rug in his Livingroom. Y.H. stated that the color of the couch was not normal and therefore it stuck with her. In the middle of the floor, there was a large box which Senthil pointed out being the one for UPS to pick up.

Y.H. and Senthil were sitting in the living room talking to pass the time as they waited. Eventually Senthil asked Y.H. if she would like a drink. After initially declining a drink, Senthil could talk Y.H. into one with persistence. Senthil finally gave up on the UPS coming and Y.H. asked if they could go get dinner. Senthil and Y.H. were not very hungry and decided to stay in. After Y.H. consumed the alcoholic drink, Senthil began a conversation about marijuana. Y.H. has explored minimally with drugs and Senthil showed his expertise in marijuana knowledge. Senthil could explain different strands and effects of the strands. Senthil knew about the oils that could be taken from the marijuana and the best way to enjoy.

Y.H. and Senthil began to "vape" and this is when Y.H. becomes fuzzy on details from the night. Y.H. who has consumed less than one alcoholic beverage of rum and coke is now struggling to keep up with conversations aware of her surroundings. Senthil went to the restroom and all the lights were dimmed as he exited the living room. Y.H. sat on the couch waiting for Senthil to return and attempted to keep herself awake and or aware of what was happening.

Senthil returned to the living room and began to kiss Y.H. who was ok with kissing. Y.H. still on the couch realized that she could not feel her legs or body. Y.H. who was very slow to process information was still kissing Senthil when he began and successfully unhooked Y.H.'s bra. As Y.H. struggled to process what was happening, there was a delay from the incident occurring to when she could speak. Senthil pulled Y.H.'s shirt and bra off, once the shirt and bra were fully removed, Y.H. was able to process the information and told Senthil, "NO". Senthil ignored Y.H. who told him no, Y.H. further tried to stop Senthil by pulling his hands off her.

Senthil told Y.H. "I just want to touch". Senthil followed this comment up with something to the effect of, touching does not give me permission for anything else. Senthil then told Y.H. "I look for enthusiastic consent". Shortly after Senthil made these comments, he escorted Y.H. to his bedroom. Y.H. is unclear on how she arrived inside of the bedroom and cannot remember if she was forced inside or not. Y.H. stated that she was at least led to the bedroom.

Y.H. told Senthil that she wanted to leave and he mocked her by saying what she had said in a childish manner.

Inside of the bedroom, Y.H. recalls that Senthil leaned over to his night stand and grabbed something. As Senthil was laying with his penis near Y.H.'s face he asked, "is there something you want to do before I put this on?" Y.H. believes that Senthil was talking about putting a condom on. Senthil put his erect penis inside of Y.H.'s mouth. Y.H. does not recall what exactly took place while Senthil was holding his penis inside of her mouth, however, remembers that it was not inside her mouth very long as she was forced to perform oral sex on Senthil.

Senthil then began to have sex with Y.H. by putting his penis inside of her vagina and thrusting. At one point, Senthil was straddling Y.H. when he told her to wrap her legs around him. Y.H. realized that she did not have any control or ability to wrap her legs around him.

Y.H. remembers that the forced sexual encounter occurred for nearly an hour and after Senthil was done, he went to sleep. Y.H. was still feeling the effects of the drug or alcohol that she was given and fell in and out of sleep for a couple of hours. Y.H. finally awoke and realized that she was not in a good place. Y.H. gathered her belongings and left calling a Lyft for a ride.

The following morning, Y.H. checked herself into Harborview Medical Center for a sexual assault examination. Y.H. sat alone for the next six hours to get the exam completed.

Senthil attempted to contact Y.H. a couple of times after this incident and Y.H. did not respond to any of his attempts. Y.H. contacted the Seattle Police Department in July and explained that she was afraid of the process to report this incident. Y.H. wasn't sure what if anything could be done and did not wish to further damage her emotional state. Y.H. was in contact with a victim advocate from the Seattle Police Department who explained the process and ensured that steps on cases like these were clear.

On 9-13-2018 Detectives served a search warrant on Mani's residence where photographs were taken of his residence. These photographs confirmed the layout of the apartment and showed that the kitchen would allow the opportunity for drinks to be made with a person in the living room not being able to see the drinks being made. The couch in the living room was a unique orange color that was described by the victim. Inside of the bedroom, a jar of condoms was located and photographed in the bottom part of the night stand. These photographs showed the victim's memory of the apartment was consistent with the events from that night.

GENERAL OFFENSE HARDCOPY PUBLIC DISCLOSURE RELEASE COPY

(1103-0 RAPE-STRONGARM)

ON (date) 9/17/2018 AT (time) 12:38 PM, WITH N THE (city/unincorporated area of county) City of Seattle,
COUNTY OF K NG, STATE OF WASHINGTON, THE FOLLOW NG D D OCCUR:

That Anthony M. Belgarde is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case number 2018-239951. There is probable cause to believe that Mani, Senthil K 4-24-1989 committed the crime of RCW 9A.44.050 Rape in the second degree within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington. This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances.

In December of 2017 Y.H. used a mobile app called Cupid to meet new people. Y.H. met a man named Senthil K. Mani through this app and the two began to communicate regularly. Y.H. learned about Senthil and his life. Senthil informed Y.H. of his age, place of employment and his job title with Amazon. Senthil appeared to Y.H. to be responsible, nice and a person that she may be interested in hanging out with and getting to know. Y.H. and Senthil decided to communicate via text messaging rather than through the Cupid application. Y.H. and Senthil exchanged phone numbers eliminating the need for the Cupid application.

Late January of 2018 to early February of 2018, Y.H. and Senthil decided to meet in person. Y.H. knew that Senthil lived in the Belltown area and offered to meet him close to his house. Y.H. was comfortable with the Belltown area since she lived in the area previously. Y.H. suggested to meet at Krispy Kreme Doughnuts and Senthil declined and requested a coffee shop instead. Y.H. agreed and they set the time for 5 PM on February 2nd 2018.

February 2nd 2018 Y.H. received a text message from Senthil requesting to push the time to meet for 6 PM. Senthil informed Y.H. that he was waiting for UPS to pick up a package and believed that it would have been gone sooner. Y.H. agreed and decided to go to the coffee shop around 5:45 PM and purchase her coffee before Senthil arrived. Shortly after Y.H. arrived, Senthil sent another text message. This time the text message was requesting that Y.H. come to his apartment until UPS arrived. Once again, Y.H. agreed and Senthil provided his address to her. Y.H. walked to the apartment building which is approximately five minutes (walk) from the coffee shop.

Y.H. walked around the building to ensure that she was aware of her surroundings and got to know details of the area. Y.H. felt comfortable with where she was and contacted Senthil. Senthil came down to the lockout door and held it open. Y.H. felt awkward as Senthil just stood in the doorway and did not say anything. Y.H. made a comment to Senthil asking if he was not going to talk with her. Senthil finally began to speak and the two made their way to his apartment.

Y.H. kept a mental note of how to get to Senthil's apartment. Y.H. remembered that there were a lot of turns after getting off the elevator. Once inside of the apartment, Y.H. noticed that Senthil had an orange or red couch that was partially on a throw rug in his livingroom. Y.H. stated that the color of the couch was not normal and therefore it stuck with her. In the middle of the floor, there was a large box which Senthil pointed out being the one for UPS to pick up.

Senthil would check his cellular phone and stated that he was checking to see if he had any missed calls, messages or emails from UPS.

Y.H. and Senthil were sitting in the living room talking to pass the time as they waited. Eventually Senthil asked Y.H. if she would like a drink. After initially declining a drink, Senthil could talk Y.H. into one with persistence. Senthil finally gave up on the UPS coming and Y.H. asked if they could go get dinner. Senthil and Y.H. were not very hungry and decided to stay in. After Y.H. consumed the alcoholic drink, Senthil began a conversation about marijuana. Y.H. has explored minimally with drugs and Senthil showed his expertise in marijuana knowledge. Senthil could explain different strains and effects of the strains. Senthil knew about the oils that could be taken from the marijuana and the best way to enjoy.

Y.H. and Senthil began to "vape" and this is when Y.H. becomes fuzzy on details from the night. Y.H. who has consumed less than one alcoholic beverage of rum and coke is now struggling to keep up with conversations aware of her surroundings. Senthil went to the restroom and all the lights were dimmed as he exited the living room. Y.H. sat on the couch waiting for Senthil to return and attempted to keep herself awake and aware of what was happening.

Senthil returned to the living room and began to kiss Y.H. who was ok with kissing. Y.H. still on the couch realized that she could not feel her legs or body. Y.H. who was very slow to process information was still kissing Senthil when he began and successfully unhooked Y.H.'s bra. As Y.H. struggled to process what was happening, there was a delay from the incident occurring to when she could speak. Senthil pulled Y.H.'s shirt and bra off, once the shirt and bra were fully removed, Y.H. was able to process the information and told Senthil, "NO". Senthil ignored Y.H. who told him no, Y.H. further tried to stop Senthil by pulling his hands off her.

Senthil told Y.H. "I just want to touch". Senthil followed this comment up with something to the effect of, touching does not give me permission for anything else. Senthil then told Y.H. "I look for enthusiastic consent". Shortly after Senthil made these comments, he escorted Y.H. to his bedroom. Y.H. is unclear on how she arrived inside of the bedroom and cannot remember if she was forced inside or not. Y.H. stated that she was at least led to the bedroom.

Y.H. told Senthil that she wanted to leave and he mocked her by saying what she had said in a childish manner.

Inside of the bedroom, Y.H. recalls that Senthil leaned over to his night stand and grabbed something. As Senthil was laying with his penis near Y.H.'s face he asked, "is there something you want to do before I put this on?" Y.H. believes that Senthil was talking about putting a condom on. Senthil put his erect penis inside of Y.H.'s mouth. Y.H. does not recall what exactly took place while Senthil was holding his penis inside of her mouth, however, remembers that it was not inside her mouth very long as she was forced to perform oral sex on Senthil.

Senthil then began to have sex with Y.H. by putting his penis inside of her vagina and thrusting. At one point, Senthil was straddling Y.H. when he told her to wrap her legs around him. Y.H. realized that she did not have any control or ability to wrap her legs around him.

Y.H. remembers that the forced sexual encounter occurred for nearly an hour and after Senthil was done, he went to sleep. Y.H. was still feeling the effects of the drug or alcohol that she was given and fell in and out of sleep for a couple of hours. Y.H. finally awoke and realized that she was not in a good place. Y.H. gathered her belongings and left calling a Lyft for a ride.

The following morning, Y.H. checked herself into Harborview Medical Center for a sexual assault examination. Y.H. sat alone for the next six hours to get the exam completed.

Senthil attempted to contact Y.H. a couple of times after this incident and Y.H. did not respond to any of his attempts. Y.H. contacted the Seattle Police Department in July and explained that she was afraid of the process to report this incident. Y.H. wasn't sure what if anything could be done and did not wish to further damage her emotional state. Y.H. was in contact with a victim advocate from the Seattle Police Department who explained the process and ensured that steps on cases like these were clear.

On 9-13-2018 Detectives served a search warrant on Mani's residence where photographs were taken of his residence. These photographs confirmed the layout of the apartment and showed that the kitchen would allow the opportunity for drinks to be made with a person in the living room not being able to see the drinks being made. The couch in the living room was a unique orange color that was described by the victim. Inside of the bedroom, a jar of condoms was located and photographed in the bottom part of the night stand. These photographs showed the victim's memory of the apartment was consistent with the events from that night.
